

Icon painting taster workshops at St. Seraphim's

Two-day Icon Painting Workshops at St Seraphim's, Walsingham

Delivered by Iconographer Helen McIldowie-Jenkins

St. Seraphim's is a unique heritage site in the North Norfolk pilgrimage village of Walsingham , incorporating a traditional Orthodox Chapel in the Byzantium style, Quiet garden and heritage display of our Icon collection.

Join us for a two-day practical session where participants will be given step-by-step tuition to 'make & take' a small icon. Traditional artist materials will be provided and participants will gain an understanding of the history, meaning and use of Icons.

Cost £25 for two days

Limited spaces available book now

Times and Dates:

10am -4.15pm

Saturday 18th May and Sunday 19th of May

Saturday 8th June and Sunday 9th June

Saturday 20th July and Sunday 21st July

St Seraphim's Chapel
Station Road, Little Walsingham
NR22 6EB

Phone: 01328 820610

E-mail:

saint.seraphims@gmail.com

